

Proclamation

National Cancer Survivors Day
June 7, 2020

WHEREAS, a “cancer survivor” is defined as anyone living with a history of cancer – from the moment of diagnosis through the remainder of life, and there are more than 16.9 million cancer survivors in America; and

WHEREAS, since over 1.8 million new cancer cases will be diagnosed in the United States this year, increased access to quality cancer care, screening, and prevention – especially among minorities and the medically underserved – must be a top priority in our community; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Palatine has an active, productive cancer survivor population; and

WHEREAS, hundreds of communities worldwide will be celebrating life on Sunday, June 7; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of the people of the Village of Palatine, I salute all cancer survivors and those who support them.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIM SCHWANTZ, Mayor of the Village of Palatine, do hereby proclaim observance of NATIONAL CANCER SURVIVORS DAY Sunday, June 7, 2020 in the Village of Palatine.

DATED: June 7, 2020

Mayor, Village of Palatine
